Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in the Australian Institute of International Affairs. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, as of right, use the article elsewhere after publication providing that prior permission is obtained from Taylor & Francis Ltd. Authors are themselves responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyright material from other sources.

The journal is published three times a year in April, July and November. These three issues constitute one volume. An annual index and title-page is bound in the last issue.

Australian Journal of International Affairs

Consolidated Index

VOLUMES 27-50, 1973-1996

Compiled by Robin Ward
for the editor, Stephanie Lawson

This index includes all articles and review articles, but not book reviews, published in the Australian Journal of International Affairs (previously Australian Outlook) from 1973 to 1996. It is a complementary volume to Australian Outlook, Consolidated Index, Volumes 1-26, 1947-1972, compiled by Inese Veidelis (Australian Institute of International Affairs, 1973), and helps to celebrate the fifty year anniversary of the Australian Institute of International Affairs. It consists of an author index and a subject index.

The classification system used in the subject index was originally based on that in W. J. Hudson, Australia's External Relations: Towards Bibliography of Journal Articles (Australian Institute of International Affairs, 1971). However, differences in scope have led to a considerable expansion and partial reorganisation of the Hudson classifications. Where appropriate, articles are included under two or more subject headings. References are to the volume, number (in brackets), year and page.

Australian Journal of Linguistics

EDITOR

Peter Collins, University of New South Wales, Australia

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Peter Peterson and Doug Absalom, both at University of Newcastle, Australia

Supported by an Editorial Board

The Australian Journal of Linguistics, the official journal of the Australian Linguistic Society, is concerned with all branches of linguistics, with preference given to articles of theoretical interest.

The journal maintains an international focus while at the same time encouraging articles on Australian languages, Australian English, and language in Australian society.
